PHILCONGEN SUPPORTS CULTURAL PROGRAMS OF VARIOUS FIL-AM COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

27 July 2021, Los Angeles – In line with its mandate to support and promote unity among Filipino-American community organizations under its jurisdiction, the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles participated in three simultaneous community events in the late afternoon and evening of Saturday, 24 July 2021.

Consul General Edgar B. Badajos inducted the new Officers of the University of the Philippines Alumni Association Greater Los Angeles (UPAAGLA) at his official residence in Sherman Oaks, CA (photos above).

During the program, the Association’s incoming President, Ms. Evelyn Andamo, announced priorities for her two-year term, including enhancing engagement by the Association’s general membership, as well as establishing an endowment capital account to generate larger funds to be donated to U.P. and other worthy causes in the Philippines.

The Consul General was accompanied by Consular Assistant Mr. Edwin de Pacina and Information Officer Ms. Mary Grace “Joss” Leaño,

In an event held in San Bernardino County, Vice Consul Joan Macrise C. Corrado joined the Filipino Association in San Bernardino County in their Hawaiian Night. The Vice Consul echoed the Consul General’s commitment to support the Association’s initiatives to promote Philippine culture (photos left). Joining the Vice Consul for said event were Secretary to Consul General Ms. Judelyn M. Cuaresma and Consular Assistant Edgardo Lim.

For his part, Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III graced the official induction of officers of the Rotary Club of L.A.'s Historic Filipinotown.

The Consulate General continues to strengthen its partnership with about 300 active Filipino and Filipino-American community organizations under its consular jurisdiction. END.
