26 April 2022, Los Angeles – The Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles held a webinar on the Philippine Social Security System (SSS) on 21 April 2022, Thursday, at 5:30 p.m. (PDT) via Zoom and simultaneously livestreamed over the Consulate General’s official Facebook page.

The webinar featured SSS International Representative in Los Angeles, Ms. Anna Lee A. De Leon, who discussed the benefits available to SSS members and how they can avail themselves of such benefits. The webinar was hosted by Economic Section Supervising Officer, Consul Francis Maynard S. Maleon.

In his welcome remarks, Consul General Edgar Badajos encouraged overseas Filipinos workers and former Filipinos to either become members of SSS or resume their payment contribution to SSS. Noting that SSS membership is lifetime, the Consul General also stated that aside from pension, SSS provide many benefits that members and/or their dependents and beneficiaries can avail of, including salary loan, maternity benefits, and disability benefits.

The Facebook livestream of the webinar can still be watched via:
