PHILCONGEN LA FACILITATES POSSIBLE PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN PHILIPPINE RETIREMENT AUTHORITY AND PHILIPPINE AIRLINES

02 December 2024 – During the recent roadshow of the Philippine Retirement Authority (PRA) in Los Angeles to promote the Special Resident Retiree Visa, the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles organized a meeting to facilitate a possible partnership of the PRA with Philippine Airlines. In attendance were Consul Francis Maynard S. Maleon, PRA's Client Relations and Program Development Division Chief Mervin Magbuhat, and PAL's VP for Sales Salvador Britanico, Jr., OIC/Country Manager for the US Michelle Narvaez, and Account Manager Jovito Torres. Aside from Consul Maleon, the Consulate General was also represented by Philippine Trade and Investment Center – Los Angeles Trade Commissioner Eric Elnar and Philippine Department of Tourism – LA Marketing Strategist Shaina Manlangit.

The meeting sought to start discussions between PAL and PRA by focusing on the additional perks that Special Resident Retiree Visa (SRRV) holders can receive through membership in PAL's Mabuhay Miles program and by using PAL as their carrier of choice.

Both PRA and PAL hope to complete discussions and sign the partnership agreement in Los Angeles by Q1 2025.END
