LOS ANGELES, 14 April 2026 – The Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles successfully conducted a consular outreach mission in Las Vegas, Nevada from 11 – 12 April 2026. Over the two-day mission, the team rendered a total of 853 services, which included passport, dual citizenship, notarial, civil registry, overseas voter registration, and Social Security System (SSS) transactions, to overseas Filipinos living in Las Vegas and nearby cities in the State of Nevada, as well as those from other states, such as New Mexico.

Led by Consul General Adelio Angelito S. Cruz, the consular outreach team included Deputy Consul General Maria Alnee A. Gamble (signing officer), Ms. Ligaya G. Sarabia (cashier), Ms. Ma. Valerie L. Frogozo, Mr. Alaniele C. Eduardo, and Mr. Elvis M. Tamayo (passport encoders), Ms. Edelwina C.

Valencia and Mr. Rommel A. Briones (dual citizenship processors), Ms. Imelda G. Nieva and Mr. Ramoncito A. Mendoza (civil registry and notarial processors), Ms. Arianne M. Hernandez-Garcia (Overseas Voting registration assistant), and Mr. Genaro T. Estacio, Jr. and Ms. Paula L. Frogozo of the Social Security System (SSS) office.

Ms. Genesis Raenani of the Philippine Department of Tourism (PDOT-LA) also joined the outreach, where she attended to trade and media inquiries, including general inquiries about travel to the Philippines, and promoted the VIP Tour 2026.

Atty. Marlon Baldomero of the Pilipino American Bar Association joined the outreach mission on Sunday, 12 April 2026, upon the invitation of the Migrant Workers Office in Los Angeles, and provided general guidance in response to U.S. immigration-related queries.

Philippine Honorary Consul in Las Vegas Bella Aurora Padua-Belmonte, in partnership with the Cavite Association of Nevada, led by Mr. Ruel Rodriguez, and supported by other leaders and members of the Filipino Community in Las Vegas, assisted Post in the logistical preparations to ensure the success of the consular outreach mission.
